

20. (Amended) The method of claim 18, wherein the step of defining detector islands includes the step of forming a trench through the first semiconductor region and through the second semiconductor region and into the detector substrate.
